AGENDA ITEM # _____

Billy Wagner began his career with Monroe County in 1981 as the Director of the Civil Defense Department, which was subsequently renamed to Emergency Management.

During his tenure with the department in the capacity of Sr. Director, Mr. Wagner continued to pursue all applicable venues to ensure the safety of Monroe County residents, as well as visitors, particularly during the hurricane seasons.

Mr. Wagner's personnel file contains many letters of commendation and recognition for his efforts from various local, State and Federal entities, praising him for the conscientious dedication he displays to his community. Mr. Wagner has been a valuable asset to the Monroe County community. We are proud to honor him with this length of service award.
